SACHEMS AND ALL-STARS SERIES

Second Game to be Played This Coming Sunday - Dark Horse Will Twirl for the All Stars-Lineups Will be Announced Later-Dates Undecided for Remaining Games

The second game of the five-game series between the Sachems and All Stars is scheduled for this coming Sunday on the Falls diamond, and judging by the interest the first excited will be witnessed by a large crowd. The Sachems will use practically the same lineup as in the last game. The All Stars will be shaken up considerably, but just to what extent cannot be determined until the lineup appears in Saturday's paper.

New York, May 12—Interest in spec-ulation died away today and the stock market restored to the state of ab-normal duliness which prevailed last week. The level of prices was bare-y disturbed. In one hour only $,500 hares were dealt in, and with few exceptions movements were limited to small fractions. The market ruled slightly lower most of the day, on account of the abscence of demand, but there was no pressure to sell.

The unusually good crop prospects and the expectations of an early desired the expectations of an early desired the expectations.

and the expectations of an early decision in the freight rate cases are strong factors on the constructive side of the market which prevent aggressive speculations for the decline. Experiments in the other directions, periments in the other directions, however, prove that it is difficult to attract a following for bullish manoeuvres and the stock market today reached a state of deadlock. Sentiment was more cheerful in London and the settlement proceedd more easily than had been expected. For the first time in several days London was a buyer of stocks here. Dealings for foreign account were not large however, the total purchases being only about 6,000 shares.

A few stocks pulled away from the narrow movement. Harvester which has been in demand for the last week, made a further gain, being bought in the belief that the company would benefit from the large crops now expended.

There is much speculation as to who will twirt for the All Stars, and some of the men mentioned are Houlihan, Laxinske and Phillips. There is a rumor in sporting circles that neither of these men but a leaguer of national reputation will pitch for the Stars, and Manager Hughes says his reputation as a manager and the team's title as champions of Norwich is at stake and if he loses Sunday's game the title will belong to the Sachems.

Although Adams pitched gilt edge ball in the last game, it is generally conceded that he was not up to his usual form and Manager McBurney expects him to hold the Stars in check in the next contest. The dates for the remaining games of the series have not been set as yet, and it may be some time before the third game is played.

The arrangements for the previous game will hold good, and as the improvement of both teams has been very marked sinc ethe first game a battle royal is sure to be in order.

The following galaxy of stars have been signed up by Manager Beaulieu and include several players that have helped to make history for Willimanitic: Bill Anderson catcher, Babe Adams. Mop Peloquin and Joe Rivers pitchers, Mitte Arbour shortstop, Art Nichols first bast, Jack Nichols second base, Toss Cote third base Henie McDermott left field, Dan Ryan centerfield, Art Johnson right field.

Anderson has been appointed the captain and Manager Beaulieu expects that Bill will get all there is out of the bunch in games. The club has hired a piece of lan din West Main street on the trolley line to South Coventry and has laid out a playing field. Beaulieu challenges the Emeralds to a series for the city championship.
